Obligations of employers, workers, etc.

2(1) Every employer shall ensure, as far as it is reasonably practicable for the employer to do so,

- (a) the health and safety of

- (i) workers engaged in the work of that employer, and
 - (ii) those workers not engaged in the work of that employer but present at the work site at which that work is being carried out, and
- (b) that the workers engaged in the work of that employer are aware of their responsibilities and duties under this Act, the regulations and the adopted code.
- (2) Every worker shall, while engaged in an occupation,
- (a) take reasonable care to protect the health and safety of the worker and of other workers present while the worker is working, and
 - (b) co-operate with the worker's employer for the purposes of protecting the health and safety of
 - (i) the worker,
 - (ii) other workers engaged in the work of the employer, and
 - (iii) other workers not engaged in the work of that employer but present at the work site at which that work is being carried out.
- (3) Every supplier shall ensure, as far as it is reasonably practicable for the supplier to do so, that any tool, appliance or equipment that the supplier supplies is in safe operating condition.
- (4) Every supplier shall ensure that any tool, appliance, equipment, designated substance or hazardous material that the supplier supplies complies with this Act, the regulations and the adopted code.
- (5) Every contractor who directs the activities of an employer involved in work at a work site shall ensure, as far as it is reasonably practicable to do so, that the employer complies with this Act, the regulations and the adopted code in respect of that work site.

RSA 2000 cO-2 s2;2002 c31 s3

Prime contractor

- 3(1) Every work site must have a prime contractor if there are 2 or more employers involved in work at the work site.
- (2) The prime contractor for a work site is

- (a) the contractor, employer or other person who enters into an agreement with the owner of the work site to be the prime contractor, or
- (b) if no agreement has been made or if no agreement is in force, the owner of the work site.

(3) If a work site is required to have a prime contractor under subsection (1), the prime contractor shall ensure, as far as it is reasonably practicable to do so, that this Act, the regulations and the adopted code are complied with in respect of the work site.

(4) One of the ways in which a prime contractor of a work site may meet the obligation under subsection (3) is for the prime contractor to do everything that is reasonably practicable to establish and maintain a system or process that will ensure compliance with this Act, the regulations and the adopted code in respect of the work site.

RSA 2000 cO-2 s3;2012 s7 s2

Multiple obligations

4(1) In this section, “function” means the function of prime contractor, contractor, employer, supplier or worker.

(2) If a person has 2 or more functions under this Act in respect of one work site, the person must meet the obligations of each function.

1994 c43 s4

Identification

4.1(1) Every person at a work site shall, on request by an officer, provide proof of identity satisfactory to the officer.

(2) Every employer involved in work at a work site shall, on request by an officer, identify to the officer the workers employed by that employer at the work site.

2012 c7 s2

Staff

5(1) In accordance with the Public Service Act, there may be appointed one or more Directors of Inspection, Directors of Medical Services, Directors of Occupational Hygiene, occupational health and safety officers and any other employees necessary for the administration of this Act.

(2) The Minister may, in writing, designate

- (a) any employee of the Government as a person who may perform all or part of the duties and responsibilities of a Director of Inspection, a Director of Occupational Hygiene or an officer, or

- (b) any physician employed by the Government or any other physician as a person who may perform all or part of the duties and responsibilities of a Director of Medical Services.

1983 c39 ss4,19;1994 c43 s5

Occupational Health and Safety Council

- 6(1) There is to be a council called the “Occupational Health and Safety Council” that shall consist of not more than 12 persons appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.
- (2) The Minister may designate one of the members of the Council as chair and one or more of the members of the Council as vice-chairs.
- (3) The members of the Council shall be appointed for terms not exceeding 3 years.
- (4) On the expiration of a member’s term of office, that member of the Council may, subject to the Alberta Public Agencies Governance Act and any applicable regulations under that Act, be reappointed.
- (5) The members of the Council shall be paid
- (a) remuneration prescribed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council in accordance with any applicable regulations under the Alberta Public Agencies Governance Act, and
 - (b) their reasonable travelling and living expenses, in accordance with any applicable regulations under the Alberta Public Agencies Governance Act, if incurred while absent from their ordinary places of residence and in the course of their duties as members of the Council.
- (6) If regulations under the Alberta Public Agencies Governance Act apply in respect of remuneration for the members of the Council, those regulations prevail, to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency, over any regulations prescribing remuneration under subsection (5)(a).

RSA 2000 cO-2 s6;2009 cA-31.5 s62

Duties of Council

- 7 The Council shall
- (a) advise the Minister on matters concerning this Act, the regulations and the adopted codes and potential changes to them, and the regulations and on matters concerning the health and safety of workers;

- (b) hear appeals in accordance with this Act and the regulations;
- (c) perform any duties and functions assigned to it by the Minister with respect to the administration of this Act, the regulations and the adopted codes.

RSA 2000 cO-2 s7;2002 c31 s4;2012 c7 s2

Inspection

8(1) For the purposes of this Act, an officer may

- (a) at any reasonable hour enter into or on any work site and inspect that work site;
- (b) subject to subsection (2), require the production of any records, books, plans or other documents that relate to the health or safety of workers and may examine them, make copies of them or remove them temporarily for the purpose of making copies;
- (c) inspect, seize or take samples of any material, product, tool, appliance or equipment being produced, used or found in or on the work site that is being inspected;
- (d) make tests and take photographs or recordings in respect of any work site;
- (e) interview and obtain statements from persons at the work site.

(2) Only a Director of Medical Services or a person authorized in writing by the Director may require the production of, or examine and make copies of, medical reports or records or remove them temporarily for the purpose of making copies.

(3) When an officer

- (a) removes any records, books, plans or other documents under subsection (1)(b), the officer shall
 - (i) give to the person from whom those items were taken a receipt for them, and
 - (ii) forthwith make copies of, take photographs of or otherwise record those items and forthwith return them to the person to whom the receipt was given, or

- (b) seizes or takes samples of any material, product, tool, appliance or equipment under subsection (1)(c), the officer shall

- (i) give to the person from whom those items were seized or taken a receipt for them, and
- (ii) on that person's request, return those items to that person when they have served the purposes for which they were seized or taken.

(4) If a person refuses to allow an officer to exercise any powers under subsection (1) or interferes or attempts to interfere with the officer in the exercise of those powers, a Director of Inspection may apply to the Court of Queen's Bench for an order restraining that person from preventing or interfering in any manner with the officer in the exercise of those powers.

(5) A statement given under this section is not admissible in evidence for any purpose in a trial, public inquiry under the Fatality Inquiries Act or other proceeding except to prove

- (a) non-compliance with this section, or
- (b) a contravention of section 41(3)

in an action or proceeding under this Act.

RSA 2000 cO-2 s8;2009 c53 s122

Order to remedy unhealthy or unsafe conditions

9(1) When an officer is of the opinion that work is being carried out in a manner that is unhealthy or unsafe to the workers engaged in the work or present where the work is being carried out, the officer may in writing order the person responsible for the work being carried out

- (a) to stop the work that is specified in the order, and
- (b) to take measures as specified in the order that are, in the opinion of the officer, necessary to ensure that the work will be carried out in a healthy and safe manner, or either of them, within the time limits specified in the order.

(2) When an officer is of the opinion that a person is not complying with this Act, the regulations or the adopted code, the officer may in writing order that person to take such measures, within the time limits specified in the order, as the officer considers necessary to ensure such compliance and specifies in the order.

(3) Measures specified in the order referred to in subsection (2), where the order is made in respect of the failure by a person to comply with section 31(5) or 36, may require one or more of the following:

- (a) that the disciplinary action cease;

- (b) reinstatement of the worker to the worker's former employment under the same terms and conditions under which the worker was formerly employed;
- (c) payment to the worker of money not more than the equivalent of wages that the worker would have earned if the worker had not been dismissed or had not received disciplinary action;
- (d) removal of any reprimand or other reference to the matter from the worker's employment records.

(4) If the worker has worked elsewhere while the dismissal or disciplinary action has been in effect, those wages earned elsewhere shall be deducted from the amount payable to the worker under subsection (3)(c).

RSA 2000 cO-2 s9;2002 c31 s5

Danger to persons on work site

10(1) When an officer is of the opinion that a danger to the health or safety of a worker exists in respect of that worker's employment, the officer may at any time enter into or on any work site and do any or all of the following:

- (a) order the work or any part of it that is taking place to be stopped forthwith;
- (b) order any worker or other person present to leave the work site forthwith;
- (c) in writing order the prime contractor, the contractor or the employer to take measures specified by the officer that the officer considers necessary for the purpose of removing the source of the danger or to protect any person from the danger.

(2) No person shall interfere with an officer in the performance of the officer's duties under this section.

(3) When requested to do so by an officer, a peace officer shall assist the officer in carrying out the officer's duties under this section.

RSA 1980 cO-2 s8;RSA 1980 c15(Supp) ss7,25;1994 c43 s6

Order stopping the use of unsafe tools, appliances, etc.

11(1) When an officer is of the opinion that a tool, appliance or equipment being used or that may be used by a worker

- (a) is not in safe operating condition, or
- (b) does not comply with the adopted code,

the officer may in writing order the worker to stop using or to refrain from using that tool, appliance or equipment.

(2) When an officer is of the opinion that a supplier is supplying a tool, appliance or equipment that

- (a) is not in safe operating condition, or
- (b) does not comply with the adopted code,

the officer may in writing order the supplier to stop supplying that tool, appliance or equipment for use by any worker.

(3) If an officer makes an order under this section, the officer may rescind that order on being satisfied that the tool, appliance or equipment in respect of which the order was made

- (a) has been repaired or modified so that it is in safe operating condition, or
- (b) has been made to comply with the adopted code,

as the case may be.

RSA 2000 cO-2 s11;2002 c31 s6

Improper storage and handling

12(1) When an officer is of the opinion that the storage, handling or use of a substance or material does not comply with the adopted code, the officer may in writing order the person responsible for the storage, handling or use of the substance or material to take the measures specified in the order that are, in the opinion of the officer, necessary to ensure that that code is complied with.

(2) When an officer is of the opinion that a supplier is supplying any substance or material that does not comply with the adopted code, the officer may in writing order the supplier to stop supplying that substance or material.

(3) If an officer makes an order under this section, the officer may in writing rescind that order on being satisfied that the material or substance is being supplied, stored, handled or used in compliance with the adopted code.

RSA 2000 cO-2 s12;2002 c31 s7

Licence

13(1) A licence may be issued in accordance with the regulations.

(2) A Director may, in accordance with the regulations, cancel or suspend a licence.

1983 c39 s7

Protection of workers on a project

14(1) When a person has begun or is about to begin a project and a Director of Inspection or a Director of Occupational Hygiene is of the opinion that the health and safety of any worker who is or will be present at the project is not being or will not be protected, a Director may in writing order that person to stop that project or to refrain from beginning that project, as the case may be.

(2) A Director of Inspection or a Director of Occupational Hygiene shall not rescind an order made under subsection (1) until the Director is satisfied that the person to whom the order was made has taken the measures that, in the opinion of a Director, will protect the health and safety of the workers concerned.

(3) A Director of Inspection or a Director of Occupational Hygiene may require any person who has begun or is about to begin a project to furnish to a Director, within the time specified by a Director, the plans, drawings and specifications that are reasonably necessary for determining whether the health and safety of the workers concerned is being or will be protected.

RSA 1980 cO-2 s10;RSA 1980 c15(Supp) s10;1983 c39 ss19,20

New project

15 A person who intends to begin a new project may be required to file notice in accordance with the regulations.

1983 c39 s8;1988 c36 s15

Appeal

16(1) A person

- (a) to whom an order is issued under section 9, 10, 11, 12, 14, 25 or 33,
- (b) who is given a notice of administrative penalty, or
- (c) whose licence is cancelled or suspended, may appeal the order, administrative penalty, cancellation or suspension to the Council.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) shall be commenced by serving a notice of the appeal on a Director of Inspection

- (a) in the case of an appeal from an order referred to in subsection (1)(a), within 30 days from the date that the order was served on the person making the appeal,
- (b) in the case of an appeal from an administrative penalty, within 30 days from the date that the notice of administrative penalty was given to the person making the appeal, or

- (c) in the case of an appeal from the cancellation or suspension of a licence, within 30 days from the date that the licence, certificate or permit was cancelled or suspended.
- (3) After considering the matter being appealed, the Council may by order
- (a) in the case of an appeal from an order referred to in subsection (1)(a), confirm, revoke or vary the order,
 - (b) in the case of an appeal from an administrative penalty, confirm, revoke or vary the administrative penalty, or
 - (c) in the case of an appeal from the cancellation or suspension of a licence,
 - (i) confirm the cancellation or suspension,
 - (ii) reinstate the cancelled licence,
 - (iii) substitute a suspension for the cancellation, or
 - (iv) remove or vary the suspension.
- (4) When an appeal is made to the Council under subsection (1), the Council shall hear the appeal and render a decision as soon as practicable.
- (5) An appeal lies to the Court of Queen's Bench from an order of the Council on a question of law or a question of jurisdiction and on hearing the matter the Court may make any order, including the awarding of costs, that the Court considers proper.
- (6) An appeal under subsection (5) shall be made by way of application within 30 days from the date that the order of the Council is served on the person appealing the order of the Council.
- (7) When an appeal is commenced under subsection (1)(a) or (c), the commencement of that appeal does not operate as a stay of the order, cancellation or suspension being appealed from except insofar as the chair or a vice-chair of the Council so directs.
- (7.1) When an appeal from an administrative penalty is commenced under subsection (1)(b), the commencement of that appeal operates to stay the administrative penalty until the Council renders its decision on the appeal or the appeal is withdrawn.
- (8) When an appeal from an order of the Council under subsection (3)(a) or (c) is commenced under subsection (5), the commencement of that appeal does not operate as a stay of the order of the Council being appealed from except insofar as a judge of the Court of Queen's Bench so directs.

(9) When an appeal from an order of the Council under subsection (3)(b) confirming or varying an administrative penalty is commenced under subsection (5), the commencement of that appeal operates to stay the administrative penalty until the Court of Queen's Bench renders its decision on the appeal or the appeal is withdrawn.

RSA 2000 cO-2 s16;2009 c53 s122;2012 c7 s2

Hearing of appeal

17(1) When the Council hears appeals under this Act, it may, at the direction of the chair, sit in one or more divisions and the divisions may sit simultaneously or at different times.

(2) For the purpose of hearing appeals under this Act, 3 members constitute a quorum of the Council or of a division of the Council.

(3) A division of the Council may exercise and perform all the jurisdiction, powers and duties of the Council with respect to the hearing of appeals under this Act and an order of a division is an order of the Council and binds all members of the Council.

(4) The chair may designate a member of a division of the Council to preside at any sitting of a division at which the chair is not present.

(5) When the Council or a division of the Council is hearing an appeal and one or more members of the Council or division, as the case may be, do not for any reason attend on any day or part of a day, the remaining members present may, if they constitute a quorum under this section, exercise and perform all the jurisdiction, powers and duties of the Council with respect to that hearing.

(6) A decision of a majority of the members of the Council or a division of the Council present and constituting a quorum is the decision of the Council or of the division and in the event that there is a tie vote the chair or the presiding member, as the case may be, may cast a 2nd vote.

(7) The Council may establish rules of procedure respecting the hearing of appeals before it or before a division.

(8) For the purpose of hearing appeals under this Act, the members of the Council have the same power as is vested in the Court of Queen's Bench for the trial of civil actions

(a) to summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses,

- (b) to compel witnesses to give evidence under oath or otherwise,
- (c) to compel witnesses to give evidence in person or otherwise, and
- (d) to compel witnesses to produce any record, object or thing that relates to the matter being heard.

RSA 2000 cO-2 s17;2012 c7 s2

Serious injuries and accidents

18(1) If an injury or accident described in subsection (2) occurs at a work site, the prime contractor or, if there is no prime contractor, the contractor or employer responsible for that work site shall notify a Director of Inspection of the time, place and nature of the injury or accident as soon as possible.

(2) The injuries and accidents to be reported under subsection (1) are

- (a) an injury or accident that results in death,
- (b) an injury or accident that results in a worker's being admitted to a hospital for more than 2 days,
- (c) an unplanned or uncontrolled explosion, fire or flood that causes a serious injury or that has the potential of causing a serious injury,
- (d) the collapse or upset of a crane, derrick or hoist, or
- (e) the collapse or failure of any component of a building or structure necessary for the structural integrity of the building or structure.

(3) If an injury or accident referred to in subsection (2) occurs at a work site or if any other serious injury or any other accident that has the potential of causing serious injury to a person occurs at a work site, the prime contractor or, if there is no prime contractor, the contractor or employer responsible for that work site shall

- (a) carry out an investigation into the circumstances surrounding the serious injury or accident,
- (b) prepare a report outlining the circumstances of the serious injury or accident and the corrective action, if any, undertaken to prevent a recurrence of the serious injury or accident, and
- (c) ensure that a copy of the report is readily available for inspection by an officer.

(4) The prime contractor, contractor or employer who prepared the report referred to in subsection (3) shall retain the report for 2 years after the serious injury or accident.

(5) A report prepared under this section is not admissible as evidence for any purpose in a trial arising out of the serious injury or accident, an investigation or public inquiry under the Fatality Inquiries Act or any other action as defined in the Alberta Evidence Act except in a prosecution for perjury or for the giving of contradictory evidence.

(6) Except as otherwise directed by a Director of Inspection, an occupational health and safety officer or a peace officer, a person shall not disturb the scene of an accident reported under subsection (1) except insofar as is necessary in

- (a) attending to persons injured or killed,
- (b) preventing further injuries, and
- (c) protecting property that is endangered as a result of the accident.

Investigation of accident

19(1) If an accident occurs at a work site, an officer may attend at the scene of the accident and may make any inquiries that the officer considers necessary to determine the cause of the accident and the circumstances relating to the accident.

(2) Every person present at an accident when it occurred or who has information relating to the accident shall, on the request of an officer, provide to the officer any information respecting the accident that the officer requests.

(3) An officer may, for the purposes of determining the cause of the accident, seize or take samples of any substance, material, product, tool, appliance or equipment that was present at, involved in or related to the accident.

(4) If an officer seizes or takes samples of any substance, material, product, tool, appliance or equipment under subsection (3), the officer shall

- (a) give to the person from whom those items were seized or taken a receipt for those items, and
- (b) on that person's request, return those items to that person when those items have served the purposes for which they were seized or taken.

(5) Any statement given under this section is not admissible in evidence for any purpose in a trial, public inquiry under the Fatality Inquiries Act or other proceeding except to prove

- (a) non-compliance with this section, or
- (b) a contravention of section 41(3)

in an action or proceeding under this Act.

(6) A peace officer may assist an officer in carrying out the officer's duties under this section if the officer so requests.

Medical examination

20(1) A Director of Medical Services may, for the purposes of determining

- (a) the extent of any injury suffered by a worker injured in an accident that occurred in respect of that worker's occupation, or
- (b) whether a worker is suffering from an occupational disease that is related to that worker's occupation, require that worker to be medically examined by a Director of Medical Services or by the worker's physician.

(2) The employer shall pay for a medical examination of a worker under subsection (1).

Time of medical examination

21(1) A medical examination carried out under section 20 shall, when practicable, be performed during the normal hours of employment of the worker being examined.

(2) When a worker examined under section 20

- (a) is examined during the worker's normal hours of employment, or
- (b) spends time in going to or returning from that examination during the worker's normal hours of employment, the employer of that worker shall not deduct from that worker any wages, salary or other remuneration or benefits that that worker would have received for working during those normal hours of employment that were spent by that worker in being examined or going to or returning from that examination.

RSA 1980 cO-2 s16

Notice of findings

22 When a physician, in the course of the physician's practice as a physician, finds that a person examined by the physician is affected with or is suffering from a notifiable disease, the physician shall, within 7 days after the diagnosis of that disease, notify a Director of Medical Services in writing of the name, address and place of employment of that person and the name of the notifiable disease.

Hazards

24(1) If a worker is employed in a hazardous occupation or at a hazardous work site, a Director of Medical Services may

- (a) require that the worker's employer shall, within 30 days after the commencement of the worker's employment, register with a Director the worker's name and the location of the work site where the worker is employed,
- (b) require the worker to have regular medical examinations,
- (c) prescribe the type and frequency of the medical examinations,
- (d) prescribe the form and content of medical records to be compiled with respect to that worker, and
- (e) prescribe the period of time for which those medical records must be maintained.

(2) When a person registered under subsection (1) terminates the person's employment with the person's employer, the employer shall notify a Director of Medical Services of that termination within 30 days after that termination.

(3) The employer shall pay for medical examinations of a worker under subsection (1).

27(1) The Minister may engage the services of experts or persons having special technical or other knowledge to advise the Minister or to inquire into and report to the Minister on matters respecting the health and safety of workers.

(2) A person whose services are engaged under subsection (1) shall

- (a) be paid any remuneration that the Minister prescribes, and
- (b) be paid the person's reasonable travelling and living expenses while absent from the person's ordinary place of residence and in the course of providing the person's services to the Minister.

RSA 1980 cO-2 s22

Exchange of information

28 The Minister may enter into agreements with The Workers' Compensation Board governing the exchange between the Minister and The Workers' Compensation Board of

- (a) any information or reports respecting any or all of the following:
 - (i) any accidents or injuries that occur at work sites;
 - (ii) any occupational diseases;
 - (iii) any measures taken by prime contractors, contractors or employers to protect the health and safety of workers;
 - (iv) any matter concerning the operations of prime contractors, contractors or employers;

and

- (b) any statistical information respecting any or all of the following:
 - (i) accidents or injuries occurring at work sites;
 - (ii) occupational diseases;
 - (iii) assessments made by the Board under the Workers' Compensation Act and the cost of claims made under that Act.

Publication of information about employers

28.1 The Minister may, in order to enhance the protection of workers and the prevention of work site injuries by encouraging good and discouraging bad work site safety records,

- (a) establish indices and measurements of work site injury prevention,
- (b) maintain a register consisting of the names of employers and their performance, as determined by the Minister, in relation to those indices and measurements,
- (c) publish, or authorize a department or agency of the Government or any other entity to publish, the information contained in that register, and
- (d) collect any information needed for that register from another public body that provides the information to the Minister.

Joint work site health and safety committees

31(1) The Minister may, by order, require that there be established at any work site a joint work site health and safety committee that shall

- (a) identify situations that may be unhealthy or unsafe in respect of the work site,
- (b) make recommendations to prime contractors, contractors, employers and workers for the improvement of the health and safety of workers at or on the work site,
- (c) establish and maintain educational programs regarding the health and safety of workers at or on the work site, and
- (d) carry out those duties and functions provided for by the adopted code.

(2) A joint work site health and safety committee shall consist of workers who represent the workers at the work site and persons who represent the prime contractor, contractors and employers involved in work at the work site.

(3) The number of persons on a joint work site health and safety committee who represent the prime contractor, contractors and employers shall not exceed in total the number of workers on the committee who represent the workers at the work site.

(4) A joint work site health and safety committee shall hold its meetings and carry out its duties and functions during normal working hours.

(5) No disciplinary action shall be taken against a member of a joint work site health and safety committee by reason of that member performing duties and functions as a member of that committee.

RSA 2000 cO-2 s31;2002 c31 s11

Written health and safety policies

32 A prime contractor, contractor or employer, if required by or under the regulations or the adopted code, shall

- (a) state that person's policy in writing for the protection and maintenance of the health and safety of that person's workers on the work site,
- (b) state the arrangements to implement that policy, and
- (c) as far as is reasonably practicable, inform that person's workers of the policy.

RSA 2000 cO-2 s32;2002 c31 s12

Code of practice

33(1) A prime contractor, contractor or employer involved in work at a work site may be required

- (a) by a written order of a Director, or
- (b) by the regulations or the adopted code to establish a code of practice and to supply copies of it to a Director.

(2) A code of practice shall include practical guidance on the requirements of the regulations or the adopted code applicable to the work site, safe working procedures in respect of the work site and other matters as required by a Director, the regulations or the adopted code.

- (3) A prime contractor, contractor or employer who establishes a code of practice pursuant to subsection (1) shall ensure that
- (a) a copy of the code of practice is readily available to the workers and other persons at the work site, and
 - (b) all workers to whom the code of practice applies receive appropriate education, instruction or training with respect to the code so that they are able to comply with its requirements.
- (4) A Director may from time to time require that the code of practice be revised.

Acceptances

- 34(1) A Director may, in accordance with the regulations, issue in writing an acceptance to a prime contractor, contractor or employer if, in the Director's opinion, an alternative tool, appliance, equipment, work process, first aid service or first aid supplies or equipment at a work site provides equal or greater protection than that provided for by the regulations or the adopted code to persons affected by the tool, appliance, equipment, work process, first aid service or first aid supplies or equipment.
- (2) A Director may impose terms and conditions the Director considers necessary on the acceptance and those terms and conditions are part of the acceptance.
- (3) An acceptance is in effect only during the period prescribed in it and, notwithstanding anything in this Act, the regulations or the adopted code, during that period the terms, conditions or requirements set out in it apply with respect to the tool, appliance, equipment or work process at the work site to which the acceptance applies.
- (4) A prime contractor, contractor or employer who is issued an acceptance shall ensure that the acceptance is complied with.
- (5) The Regulations Act does not apply to an acceptance issued by a Director.

RSA 2000 cO-2 s34;2002 c31 s14

Existence of imminent danger

- 35(1) No worker shall
- (a) carry out any work if, on reasonable and probable grounds, the worker believes that there exists an imminent danger to the health or safety of that worker,

- (b) carry out any work if, on reasonable and probable grounds, the worker believes that it will cause to exist an imminent danger to the health or safety of that worker or another worker present at the work site, or
- (c) operate any tool, appliance or equipment if, on reasonable and probable grounds, the worker believes that it will cause to exist an imminent danger to the health or safety of that worker or another worker present at the work site.

(2) In this section, “imminent danger” means in relation to any occupation

- (a) a danger that is not normal for that occupation, or
- (b) a danger under which a person engaged in that occupation would not normally carry out the person’s work.

(3) A worker who

- (a) refuses to carry out work, or
- (b) refuses to operate a tool, appliance or equipment

pursuant to subsection (1) shall, as soon as practicable, notify the worker’s employer at the work site of the worker’s refusal and the reason for the worker’s refusal.

(4) On being notified under subsection (3), the employer shall

- (a) investigate and take action to eliminate the imminent danger,
- (b) ensure that no worker is assigned to use or operate the tool, appliance or equipment or to perform the work for which a worker has made a notification under subsection (3), unless
 - (i) the worker to be so assigned is not exposed to imminent danger, or
 - (ii) the imminent danger has been eliminated,
- (c) prepare a written record of the worker’s notification, the investigation and action taken, and
- (d) give the worker who gave the notification a copy of the record described in clause (c).

(5) The employer may require a worker who has given notification under subsection (3) to remain at the work site and may assign the worker temporarily to other work assignments that the worker is reasonably capable of performing.

(6) A temporary assignment under subsection (5), if there is no loss in pay, is not disciplinary action for the purposes of section 36.

(7) If a worker who receives a record under subsection (4)(d) is of the opinion that an imminent danger still exists, the worker may file a complaint with an officer.

(8) An officer who receives a complaint under subsection (7) shall prepare a written record of the worker's complaint, the investigation and the action taken and shall give the worker and the employer a copy of the record.

(9) A worker or an employer who receives a record under subsection (8) may request a review of the matter by the Council by serving a notice of appeal on a Director of Inspection within 30 days from the date of receipt of the record.

(10) After considering the matter, the Council may by order

- (a) dismiss the request for a review, or
- (b) require the employer to eliminate the imminent danger.

(11) An appeal lies to the Court of Queen's Bench from an order of the Council on a question of law or a question of jurisdiction and on hearing the matter the Court may make any order, including the awarding of costs, that the Court considers proper.

(12) An appeal under subsection (11) shall be made by way of application within 30 days from the date that the order of the Council is served on the person appealing the order of the Council.

(13) The commencement of an appeal under subsection (11) does not operate as a stay of the order of the Council being appealed from except insofar as a judge of the Court of Queen's Bench so directs.

Disciplinary action complaint

37(1) A worker who has reasonable cause to believe that the worker has been dismissed or subjected to disciplinary action in contravention of section 31(5) or 36 may file a complaint with an officer.

(2) An officer who receives a complaint under subsection (1) shall prepare a written record of the worker's complaint, the investigation and the action taken and shall give the worker and the employer a copy of the record.

(3) A worker or an employer who receives a record under subsection (2) may request a review of the matter by the Council by serving a notice of appeal on a Director of Inspection within 30 days from the receipt of the record.

(4) After considering the matter, the Council may by order

- (a) dismiss the request for a review, or
- (b) require one or more of the following:
 - (i) reinstatement of the worker to the worker's former employment under the same terms and conditions under which the worker was formerly employed;
 - (ii) cessation of disciplinary action;
 - (iii) payment to the worker of money not more than the equivalent of wages that the worker would have earned if the worker had not been dismissed or had not received disciplinary action;
 - (iv) removal of any reprimand or other reference to the matter from the worker's employment records.

(5) If the worker has worked elsewhere while the dismissal or disciplinary action has been in effect, those wages earned elsewhere shall be deducted from the amount payable to the worker under subsection (4)(b)(iii).

(6) An appeal lies to the Court of Queen's Bench from an order of the Council on a question of law or a question of jurisdiction and on hearing the matter the Court may make any order, including the awarding of costs, that the Court considers proper.

(7) An appeal under subsection (6) shall be made by way of application within 30 days from the date that the order of the Council is served on the person appealing the order of the Council.

(8) The commencement of an appeal under subsection (6) does not operate as a stay of the order of the Council being appealed from except insofar as a judge of the Court of Queen's Bench so directs.

Lieutenant Governor in Council regulations

40(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations

- (a) establishing general health and safety rules for or in connection with occupations and work sites, including
 - (i) reporting, medical and health requirements, and
 - (ii) the making available of notices issued by a Director and of orders made under, and other information and documents required by, this Act, the regulations or an adopted code;
- (b) providing for any matter or thing which by this Act may or is to be provided for by the regulations;
- (c) respecting the establishment, composition and operation of a board dealing with first aid training;
- (d) respecting licences and licensing, including qualifications to obtain and hold licences and the maintenance of a registry of licensees;
- (e) specifying which work sites are mines or quarries for the purposes of this Act;
- (f) respecting fees
 - (i) to be paid by the Government to physicians for services performed, and
 - (ii) for licences and for services and materials provided under this Act, the regulations and the adopted codes;
- (g) respecting acceptances referred to in section 34;
- (h) establishing and otherwise respecting a system of fixed fines or penalties for contraventions of this Act, the regulations and any adopted code, including mechanisms for administering and enforcing that system and the disposition of the fines or penalties collected under the system;
 - (i) authorizing the making of orders relating to any matters falling within the scope of clauses (a), (d) or (g) or section 40.1(1)(a);
- (i.1) respecting administrative penalties, including regulations
 - (i) respecting notices of administrative penalty, their form and contents and the manner in which they are required to be given;

- (ii) respecting the amounts of the administrative penalties that may, subject to section 40.3(3), be imposed under section 40.3(2) and respecting factors to be taken into account in setting the amount of an administrative penalty;
 - (iii) respecting appeals from administrative penalties, including regulations authorizing the charging of fees in respect of appeals from administrative penalties and regulations respecting the fees, the amounts of the fees and their disposition;
 - (iv) respecting any other matter the Lieutenant Governor in Council considers necessary or advisable to carry out the intent and purpose of the system of administrative penalties;
- (i.2) respecting service of orders under section 44(1.1)(a), (b) and (c), including regulations respecting the electronic methods by which service may be effected, regulations respecting service by recorded mail and regulations respecting when service by recorded mail or an electronic method is deemed to be effective;
- (j) enabling any particular subject-matter covered by clause (a) to be dealt with by an adopted code.

(2) If regulations are made under subsection (1)(h), those regulations operate notwithstanding anything in the Financial Administration Act.

RSA 2000 cO-2 s40;2002 c31 s16;2012 c7 s2

Ministerial orders and codes

40.1(1) The Council may make a code of rules (in this section referred to as an “OHS code”)

- (a) respecting specific health and safety matters for or in connection with occupations and work sites, including
 - (i) reporting requirements and the maintenance and preservation of documents reported,
 - (ii) medical and health requirements,
 - (iii) joint work site health and safety committees,
 - (iv) the making available of codes of practice and other information and documents required by an adopted code, and

- (v) the instruction, supervision and qualifications of specified persons,
- (b) providing for the prevalence of specified provisions of an adopted code over other specified provisions of an adopted code, and
- (c) providing for any matter or thing which by this Act or the regulations may or is to be provided for by an adopted code.

(2) The Minister may, after consulting with such representatives of employers and of workers in the industries that will be affected by the code as the Minister considers appropriate, make an order adopting any code that is lawfully made by the Council under subsection (1).

(3) An OHS code may itself adopt or incorporate another specific code (in this section referred to as a “secondary code”) or part of a secondary code, as that secondary code or part exists as at a particular time, dealing with health and safety matters that are within the Council’s jurisdiction under subsection (1).

(4) To avoid doubt, an adopted code is an enactment for the purposes of construing the Provincial Offences Procedure Act.

(5) The Minister shall ensure that each adopted code is adequately published in such form as the Minister considers will make it reasonably available, at no expense or at reasonable expense, to all those likely to be affected by it.

(6) To avoid doubt, the Interpretation Act applies with respect to an OHS code.

(7) Except to the extent that an OHS code otherwise provides, where there is any conflict between any provisions in an OHS code and any provisions in a secondary code, the former prevail against the latter.

2002 c31 s16

Provisions affecting the regulations and adopted codes

40.2(1) Any provision of the regulations or an adopted code may be made to apply generally or to a particular occupation, work site, prime contractor, owner, employer, contractor, supplier or worker or any class of any such category.

(2) Except to the extent that the regulations otherwise provide, where there is any conflict between any provisions in the regulations and any provisions in an adopted code, the former prevail against the latter.

2002 c31 s16

Administrative penalties

40.3(1) In this section, “regulated person” means

- (a) a contractor;
- (b) an employer;
- (c) a prime contractor;
- (d) a supplier;
- (e) a worker.

(2) If an officer is of the opinion that a regulated person

- (a) has contravened a provision of this Act, the regulations or an adopted code,
- (b) has failed to comply with an order made under this Act, the regulations or an adopted code,
- (c) has failed to comply with a term, condition or requirement of an acceptance issued under section 34, or
- (d) has failed to comply with a term, condition or requirement of an approval issued under an adopted code, the officer may, by notice in writing given to the regulated person, require the regulated person to pay to the Crown an administrative penalty in the amount set out in the notice.

(3) The amount set out in a notice of administrative penalty must not exceed

- (a) $10 000, or
- (b) in the case of a contravention or a failure to comply that continues for more than one day, $10 000 for each day or part of a day on which the contravention or failure to comply occurs or continues.

(4) A regulated person who pays an administrative penalty in respect of a contravention or a failure to comply shall not be charged under this Act with an offence in respect of the same contravention or failure to comply that is described in the notice of administrative penalty.

(5) A notice of administrative penalty may be given within 2 years after the alleged contravention or non-compliance occurs, but not afterwards.

(6) Subject to the right to appeal, where a regulated person fails to pay an administrative penalty in accordance with the notice of administrative penalty and the regulations, the Minister may file a copy of the notice of administrative penalty with the clerk of the Court of Queen's Bench, and on being filed, the notice has the same force and effect and may be enforced as if it were a judgment of the Court.

Offences

41(1) A person who contravenes this Act, the regulations or an adopted code or fails to comply with an order made under this Act, the regulation or an adopted code or with an acceptance issued under this Act is guilty of an offence and liable

- (a) for a first offence,
 - (i) to a fine of not more than $500 000 and in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine of not more than $30 000 for each day during which the offence continues after the first day or part of a day, or
 - (ii) to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to both fines and imprisonment, and
- (b) for a 2nd or subsequent offence,
 - (i) to a fine of not more than $1 000 000 and in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine of not more than $60 000 for each day or part of a day during which the offence continues after the first day, or
 - (ii) to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or to both fines and imprisonment.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a person who fails to comply with an order made under section 10 or as varied under section 16 is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of not more than $1 000 000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both fine and imprisonment.

(3) A person who knowingly makes any false statement or knowingly gives false information to an officer or a peace officer engaged in an inspection or investigation under section 8 or 19 is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of not more than $1000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both fine and imprisonment.

(4) A prosecution under this Act may be commenced within 2 years after the commission of the alleged offence, but not afterwards.

Additional powers of court to make directions

41.1(1) Where a person is convicted of an offence against this Act, in addition or as an alternative to taking any other action provided for in this Act, the court may, having regard to the nature of the offence and the circumstances surrounding its commission, make an order directing the person

- (a) to establish or to revise
 - (i) the policy referred to in section 32(a) and arrangements referred to in section 32(b), or
 - (ii) a training or educational program regarding the health or safety of workers at the work site,
- (b) to take specific action to improve health and safety at work sites, or
- (c) to take any other action specified in the regulations.

(2) The order may contain any substance or conditions that the court considers appropriate.

Effect of non-payment

41.2(1) If a person is ordered under section 41.1 to pay money to any other person and fails to pay

- (a) the entire amount before the expiry of the time period within which the order requires the entire amount to be paid, or
- (b) an instalment toward the entire amount before the expiry of the time period within which the order requires the instalment to be paid, then on the expiry of that time period the entire amount, or that portion which then remains unpaid, is deemed to be a fine imposed on the person and is enforceable by the Crown in right of Alberta in the same manner as any other fine may be enforced under the Provincial Offences Procedure Act.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where the order requiring the payment of money was made before the coming into force of this section.

Enforcement of compliance with order

42 When

- (a) an order has been made under this Act, the regulations or an adopted code by a Director of Inspection, a Director of Medical Services, a Director of Occupational Hygiene, an officer or the Council, and
- (b) the person to whom that order has been made is carrying on the work without complying with that order, a Director of Inspection may, notwithstanding that the person to whom the order was made may or may not have been prosecuted under this Act for not complying with that order, apply to the Court of Queen's Bench for an order of the Court requiring that person to comply with the order made by a Director of Inspection, a Director of Medical Services, a Director of Occupational Hygiene, an officer or the Council, as the case may be.

Service of orders

44(1) In this section, "recorded mail" means a form of document delivery by mail or courier in which receipt of the document must be acknowledged in writing as specified in the regulations.

(1.1) Where a notice of administrative penalty is given to a person or where an order that may be given to a person under this Act, the regulations or the adopted code is required to be in writing, the notice of administrative penalty or order shall be served on the person

- (a) by personal service,
- (b) by recorded mail,
- (c) in accordance with the regulations, by an electronic method, or
- (d) as directed by the Court of Queen's Bench on application.

(1.2) Notwithstanding subsection (1.1), where a person required to be served under that subsection is an employer involved in work at a work site, the notice of administrative penalty or order is deemed to have been served on the employer if it is served personally on an individual present at the work site who has apparent authority in respect of the work of that employer at the work site.

(2) An application under subsection (1.1)(d) may be made ex parte if the Court considers it proper to do so.

(3) When an order is made orally under section 10(1)(a) or (b), that order is deemed to have been served on the person to whom it is made at the time that the oral order is made to that person.

Grants

45(1) The Minister may make grants if

- (a) the Minister is authorized to do so by regulations under this section, and
- (b) there is authority available in a supply vote for the purpose for which the grant is to be made.

(2) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations

- (a) authorizing the Minister to make grants;
- (b) prescribing the purposes for which grants may be made;
- (c) governing applications for grants;
- (d) prescribing the persons or organizations or classes of persons or organizations eligible for grants;
- (e) specifying the conditions required to be met by any applicant for a grant to render that person eligible for the grant;
- (f) prescribing the conditions on which a grant is made and requiring the repayment of it to the Government if the conditions are not met;
- (g) providing for the payment of any grant in a lump sum or by instalments and prescribing the time or times at which the grant or the instalments may be paid;
- (h) limiting the amount of any grant or class of grant that may be made;

- (i) authorizing the Minister to delegate in writing to any employee of the Government any duty, power or function respecting the payment of any grant;
- (j) requiring any person receiving a grant to account for the way in which the grant is spent in whole or in part;
- (k) authorizing the Minister to enter into an agreement with respect to any matter relating to the payment of a grant.

(3) Any regulation made under subsection (2) may be specific or general in its application.

Transitional – regulations

47(1) Notwithstanding section 16 of the Occupational Health and Safety Amendment Act, 2002 but subject to anything to the contrary in the regulations under section 40(1), any regulation under this Act, as that regulation existed immediately before the commencement of that section, continues in force until it is repealed under this section, and that regulation may be repealed by

- (a) an order under section 40.1 dealing with code provisions that deal with subject-matters dealt with by that regulation, or
- (b) the regulations,

as the case may be.

(2) Notwithstanding section 1(aa.1), a regulation continued by subsection (1), while still in force, is included in the term “the regulations” so far as it is not inconsistent with the regulations under section 40(1).
